The third and final round of the 2023 NASBA (North American Snow Bike Association) Carl's Cycle/Timbersled National Championship Snow Bike Series ran its final race on yet another perfect, warm winter day. It just doesn't get any better than this, and 69 racers and 300 spectators enjoyed it together.

Ten fast, pro men showed up to vie for $4,000, paid out to the top seven. Round two winner, Canyon Ashley was absent, but former, 2-time Winter X Games finalist, Darrin Mees was in the house, and was expected to shake things up. In the end, fast and savvy Jimmy Jarrett took $1,500 and the overall, with 2-3 moto finishes, but the biggest winner was Canyon Rogers, who rode a smart, tactical race to take second with 4-2 finishes, which handed him the 2023 National Snowbike Series title. Rogers' teammate, Cody Holzer showed incredible speed, winning the first moto and grabbing a fifth in the second. And what about Darrin Mees? The popular Oregon racer (who hadn't raced on the snow for a year), crashed in moto one and had to rise from dead last to finish sixth. In the second moto, he got a great start and simply checked out from the field to take the win and grab fourth overall. Clearly, his speed is still intact. Canadian racers Matt Cox and Shannon Mason carded fifth and sixth, respectively.

Popular racer, (and new mom) Shayla Lillie, once again took both of the Pro Women moto wins, riding smooth and fast, grabbing $500. Young Ryan Evans pushed Lillie in the first moto and charged hard again in the second, but had to settle for second.

Snowmobiles are becoming a bigger and bigger part of the race, with classes for adults and many boys and girls under 12, most but not all of them locals, raced around and around, both on the track and off, racing, chasing each other, and having a blast.

The day of racing ended with the eagerly-awaited UTV (4-wheelers) taking the line, and just like last year, the crowd was treated to several crazy crashes and assorted stuck machines.

Partners for the series were: Carl's Cyle, Timbersled, Roger's Toyota, Ashley Heating and Air, Peters & Keatts Equipment, Performance Drywall, Hawkins Companies, Zack Evans Construction, Granite Construction, Valley Wide Cooperative, Kenz Hair, Pure Adrenaline Motorsports, Titanium Excavation, Rockwell Time, Disaster Response, Mile High Powersports, Superior Construction, Seat Concepts, Ride McCall, CITRA, Rod Blackstead Family, Gateway Materials and Trailers, Cascade Chamber, Restoration Pro, Doug & Tammy Olson, and X2D. Special thanks to awesome flagger Robert Lawrence, Cascade Junior High Basketball, Ryan and Wendy Rogers, Eric Christiansen and crew, the Cascade Fire EMT and Fire Department, Stephen Darcy, Kelly Fulfer, Whistle Stop, Honey Dippers Portables with Destry and Julio, and Hotel NoBo. Of course the race could have NEVER happened without the help and support of Phil and Josh Davis and Granite Excavation.
